Faith Apps: Trust

Reread 1 Corinthians 13:4-7

1. Have you ever bought a piece of exercise equipment, joined a health club, or read a diet book? Thinking back, how did it make you feel at the time?
2. Application is _____. Why is this true?
3. Why is Trust the bedrock of relationships?
4. Have you ever had someone break your trust in such a way that it affected who you are?
5. The love Paul describes in 1 Corinthians is the type of love that God shares for you and me? When do you feel most loved by God?
6. Paul writes that love keeps “no record of wrongs” (NIV). Agree? Why do we keep track of the wrongs we experience from others?
7. Pastor Jon mentioned that in every relationship there is the expectation and what we experience. What are your expectations of those in your group, your family, your work or church?
8. When a gap opens between your relationship expectations and your experience who is to stand in the gap? Paul says to never stop trusting, or giving others the benefit of the doubt. Discuss why you think this is important or not.
9. In the message, Pr. Jon said that “Love chooses love over suspicion. Suspicion is a form of rejection.” True or false.
10. When do you know it’s time to confront someone who has stretched your trust?
11. The golden rule is all about God’s love for us, how?
